Discrimination is the unjust or prejudicial treatment of different categories of people, especially the grounds of race, age or sex. It also means being favourable to some people rather than others. As of right now china are being slendered because of the corona virus happening today. Donald trump called the virus Chinese virus because it all started from there. They say trump has no qualms about calling the corona virus “Chinese virus” that’s a dangerous attitude experts says. President trump has taken distinct measures concerning this disease. The last minutes edit was captured in photo taken by the washington post’s Jabin Botsford and marks the latest instance of trump deliberately calling the novel virus a name that has being frowned upon by critics, who says its usage could lead to increase discrimination and racism towards Asian americans. Trump followers side with trump because most deadly disease come from china most says it’s because of their unhealthy food.

The word stereotype is an over generalized belief about a particular category of people. It is an expectation that people might have about a person or a particular group of people. China beliefs are different from others. People think that their beliefs are not the right way that is why they carry a lot of sickness and disease .The word today are against china way of eating. Trump says that the china are to blame and that they had no right to say that the us are to blame. During his conference he kept using the word Chinese virus and he said he was calling things by their real name so indirectly he saying that the “Chinese virus” is china. Trump followers are also not happy because china said that it came from American soldiers when it was their country.

Stigmatization is the action of describing or regarding someone or something as worthy of disgrace or great disapproval. In the respect of this case china is seen as a disgrace for this event. China foreign ministry says the US president should stop this despicable practice. The US president said to render assistance to the airline in china, but china says he should attend to his business first. President trump fires back at complains he's stigmatizing china over coronavirus. He says he had to call it from where it came from it's a very accurate term.

The word ethnocentrism means evaluation of other cultures according to preconception originating in the standard and custom of one's own culture. The first case coronavirus were recorded in the Chinese city of wuhan in the late 19. However, a Chinese foreign ministry spokesman shared a conspiracy theory, alleging the US army has brought it to the region. The unfounded accusation led US secretary of state mike pompeo to demand china to stop spreading disinformation as it tried to shift blame for the outbreak. The accusation of china concerning their food as the cause of this disease is false upon them. They say to them it is their culture and it is a normal thing and food for them, just because they are not like others it does not mean their way is wrong to them. They say it is the right thing for them.
