FINAL REMARKS		The lecturers do explain concepts and topics with good practical examples in the real world which makes it all very realistic not theoretical. It makes it easier to know how these things we learn apply to the real world and it would better for us when handling various situations as we become professional engineers. The lecturers do try to engage everyone individually by throwing questions even during online classes as he did me. In conclusion, they are doing excellently well.
