

NAME : EZEOBIDI CLEMENTINA ONYINYECHUKWU
MATRIC NUMBER : 17/ENG04/027
DEPARTMENT: ELECTRICAL AND ELECTRONICS ENGINEERING
COURSE: ENGINEERING LAW AND MANAGERIAL ECONOMICS (ENG384)

Class test

1. The role of an engineering manager is analyses of the construction of the project carried out by engineers and to check if its up to COREN standard and maximum assurance of safety to the society and after the above and many more have been put in place and cost of them will be looked upon to avoid purchasing materials with high cost and minimum efficiency
2. The role of an economist is to consider the logical evaluation of economic methods that are best suited to finance a business or purchase equipment used in a business. They are to make decisions on the financial out come of a business that will yield high productivity with good quality with low cost
3. Project managers are highly needed for a successful financial outcome of a business as they monitor the plan of the business or project. They also they note of appropriate level of analysis of opportunities needed to purchase quality Goods at low cost