

1. During the past three months I ate, slept read and repeated
2. Scenario A: as a computer engineering I was given a contract to create a model representation of a traffic sequence while doing that the electrical systems went off in my house resulting to a short circuit in my house electrical systems bricking my computer

Scenario B:as a computer engineer I was given a contract to deliver a 3d printed model of a building concept,on my way I was met with an accident and the concept got destroyed