

NAME: AROWOLO GBEMISOLA CONVENANT

DEPARTMENT: MICRO-BIOLOGY

MATRIC NO: 19/SCI 05/002

COURSE CODE: GST 112

GST 112 ASSIGNMENT

CORRUPTION

Corruption is a debased, dishonest or fraudulent conduct by those in position of trust, typically involving bribery, failure of conscience, collapse of morale and moral center for dishonest selfish gain.

There is corruption in almost every theatre of life for example: fraudulent conduct like embezzlement of public funds for personal gain by those in position of political power is corruption. Money laundering which is economic and financial crime is corruption.

Pervert ion of justice is corruption. A situation where adjudication of judicial pronouncement favour who does not merits or deserve it is corruption.

Bribe taking by our law enforcement men and women is corruption. Demanding money for bail from the members of the public by police is corruption. Giving bribe to our law enforcement men and women by members of public to disrupt investigation is corruption.

Disruption of the purity of our licensed placed of worship is corruption. I mean a situation where officiating pastor get involved in sexual sin with female members of the church is corruption. A situation where pastors use propaganda as to extort money from worshippers is corruption. Dubrous and false prophesy in our places of worship is corruption.

There is corruption in our secondary and tertiary institution where teachers and lectures respectively engaged in sexual immorality with female students to avoid them scores that they don't merit.

Electoral malpractice is corruption. This is a situation where votes counted are manipulated to favour a typical candidate to the detriment and defeat of a leading candidate.

Equally so, Exam malpractices are prevalent in our secondary schools, JAMB Exams, NECO and WAEC Examination. Students employ all manners of machinations to cheat during examination to acquire high scores. This is corruption.

It is also a common happening in our contemporary society for contractors to abnormally inflate the cost of their services for selfish gains. In the same vain people in position of power indulge in taking what is known as kick-back from contractors. Kick-back or 10% demand is choking corruption.

In a nutshell, there is a lamentable catalog of corruption as a result of failure of conscience, failure of moral behaviours, moral gravity and decent in every strata of our society as enumerated comprehensively above.