

Name: Adeniyi Toluwalope precious

Matricno: 19/sms09/005

Department: international relations and diplomacy

Course code: Get 203

College: sms

Questions. Review chapter fifteen

Pressure group is to , persuade someone into doing something . pressure group a formal or organized body with a common interests whose fundamental aim is to put pressure on any governmental institution with the goal of influencing government decision and policies and law to it's own advantage.

According to Anifowose (1999) , pressure group is described as interest groups ,lobby groups or even protest groups . pressure groups came into existence to complement , enhance or even to protect the interest of their members.

Pressure group sees to ensure that government does their bidding.

Pressure groups existence is to checkmate and make democracy better to compensate for the tyrant of majority of people in the society.

Interest groups: this is also seen as sectional groups, representing the people in the society

Eg . confederation of British industry.

Cause groups . these groups are promotion groups , which seek to promote particular causes eg charities and environmental groups

Anomic groups

Groups here have unpredictable actions and behavior as they work based on the moment and situation in the society.

Associational groups and non- associational groups

Associational groups are usually registered with appropriate authorities in a state or country

According to berkman

This are the basis of political line and the rejection of the states
And abstraction .in addition to that opinion group activities are are determined legislature administration.

The concept of pressure group was originate from the USA iet their motive is to represent the people association .

Pressure groups use lobbying or strike as a technique . Pressure groups will lobby with governmental officials directly . For example the lobbying of legislators , Minister and other government machines. Pressure groups may sponsor bills in legislative house ensure the passage of the bills.

