

Name: Okon Precious Princess

Department: Nursing

Matric number: 22/MHS02/170

Course Code: AFE122

ASSIGNMENT ON GOOD MORNING SODOM

1.THEMATIC TRUST

PEER PRESSURE: Keziah was pressured by her friends into giving Demola a chance which he raped her and she became pregnant. Also Demola was also pressured by his friends to rape Keziah, join cult and take drugs which later lead to his death.

DEPRESSION: After Keziah was assaulted by Demola she was depressed when she found out she was pregnant and also because her father started neglecting her which lead her to take her own life.

DEATH: this is finite theme that shows the ending of a character which happened to Demola

REMORSE: Nkango Nwoko also a.k.a K.K felt a deep sense of remorse for his actions that made Demola to start drinking, taking drugs, raping a fellow level mate and finally his death.

Lack of parental care: Demola parent did not pay enough attention to their son Demola which made him drew far away from them making him vulnerable to bad friends.

2.CHARACTER ANALYSIS:

KEZIAH: A young innocent girl from a good family background who just want to face her studies and make her parents proud. She had faith in herself in doing the right thing and not disclosing her personal life to anyone but did not know what life has install for her.

DEMOLA: A young handsome intelligent boy who fell in love and was trying to win the heart of the girl he loved suddenly took advice from his friend which lead his in doing the wrong things and his death.

STELLA: A kind loving girl who has experienced life too fast who is a great friend and roommate. She is also someone you can talk to in a crisis.

3. DIVERGENCE BETWEEN THE SCREEN PLAY AND THE PLAY:

The two were beautifully written and scripted but still have some differences:

-In the screen play they said Demola's mother was dead but it is written in the book that she is alive.

-In the screen they only showed are parent sitting in the lobby when she fell into labour but in the play there a movement about her giving birth.

-At the end of the screen play it ended with Doctor Hanson telling them they have a grand-daughter but in the play they ended with the Richard's family in their living room with Keziah's new child and her father telling her she was going to continue her education at The University of Ibadan with an accommodation with the assistance of Chineye to help with taking care of Mouritha when she is at school.