QUESTION 1: Attempt an incisive interrogation of solomon A Edebors Good Morning Sodom, underscoring at least five underlying thematic thrusts the drama engages

1: Theme of Lack of parental care: Bad parenting which is also known as lack of parental care can be defined as the insufficient support for their child in an emotional,psychological,intellectual,or physical manner.parent neglect has been blatant right from movement one where mrs richard went to visit keziah but Dr richard could not come because he was too busy with work.lack of parental care was also shown in the sixteenth movement when Dr Richard only emphasised on keziah`s mistake acknowledging that what keziah did was a crime not a mistake.He verbally and emotionally abused keziah to the point that she attempted suicide.Mrs Richard was dissapointed in keziah but she also stood by her,advised her and took care of her.

2:Theme of cultism:cultism is the act of belonging to a secret cult in an educational institution.cultism from the text led to a very tragic end.according to the text kk introduced demola into a cult group called red shadows.since he joined the group his life has been miserable.demola even did things he didn`t want to do.Due to this cultist group demola was shot dead mistakenly .so according to the text cultism will eventually lead to things that will not be in favour of man like death,expulsion,imprisonment

3:Theme of Unwanted pregnancy: Unwanted pregnancy are pregnancies that are unintended,unexpected,or unwanted at the time of conception.In relation to the text,keziah was raped which led to unwanted pregnancy.the pregnancy brought a lot of distress into her life.she was depressed,mentally unstable,she even attempted suicide and had to drop out of school

4:Theme of peer pressure:The theme of peer pressure was evident in the life of demola and the source was mainly Nkanga Nwoko a.k.a kk and usman Yibo a.k.a Bentol.The rape situation was carried out by demola who allowed himself to be influenced into drugging and charming his coursemate,Keziah with the use of a spiked drink and hankerchief given to him by kk(sixth movement).Even after the rape incident, kk was persuading demola to take a substance to make him high which demola knew was no good to him but due to the peer pressure made him do it (seventh movement). Also in the eighth movement demola was initiated into a cult group (red shadows). Although there was no proof of demola being pressured to join the cult group but we can still say it was as a result of the bad influence of kk on demola that made him join the cult group. However this case of giving in to peer pressure cost demola's life and even brought sorrow into the life of his parent (Engineer and Mrs Diran). Keziah was also a victim of peer pressure. Keziah's coursemate (Bummi and Ovie) tried to convince her to give in to demola's proposal. She refused several times but eventually gave in as a result of the peer pressure

5: Theme of Justice: Justice is the ethical, philosophical idea that people should be treated impartially, fairly, and properly and reasonably by the law and by those who administer the law, that law are meant to make sure people suffer no harm. One should remember that there really can be no peace without justice and there can be no justice without truth. The theme of justice was emphasised in the seventeenth movement. The text shows a clear picture of how the law should be incorruptable. Nkanga Nwoko a.k.a kk was sentenced to life imprisonment for the offence of manslaughter, two years imprisonment for the offence of membership of an unlawful society and a fine of hundred thousand naira for unlawful possession of firearms. The judge made sure all the offenders were punished for their crimes without being bias, It was made clear that justice knows no sympathy or remorse
