2. Attempt detailed character analysis of any three character in Solomon Edebor's Good morning Sodom.
3. What was the point of divergence between the published and the film version of good morning sodom.

Solution

1 Theme of death: the theme of death can be seen in page 42,tenth movement, where Stella calls Keziah where she was telling her to hurry down saying she wants to see what's going on .she getting there forcing herself through the crowd to the center only to find demola ,soaked in the pool of his own blood lifeless .

b. Theme of punishment:this can be seen in page 51,fifteenth movement where the student involved on the gang harm and cultism expelled because of their misconduct about school rules. Another instance can be found in page 58_64 where by kk and others in the dock are being tried in court and a conclusion of judgement are given among the accused .

C. Theme of deceit: this is seen where demola claims to be trying to entertain keziah who came over to his house and trying to make her feel at home but ends up drugging her and rapping her.

D. Theme of new beginnings: This can be seen sixth movement page 31 _33 of how she was raped by her pastors son's and friends while her dad was trying to save their mom the pastor's wife and she reverted from God because she was angry why God would all that happen to her when she was serving him .later she is known to have several dreams and have changed in her life and return back to God. Another instance of new beginning can be seen where keziah had given birth and her dad processed her entry into another university moving to start afresh and forget the past.

E. Theme of bad parenting: this can be seen in the nineteenth movement where Engineer Diran and Mrs Diran realized they actually failed as parents to their son demola .not being conscious about the over night changes and letting his friends be his adviser instead of them.

2a. Stella : a minor character or the book Good Morning Sodom .she is seen as keziah roommate ,a trusted friend and a support . She is seen to have gone through a trauma past which made her loose her faith in God and later comes back to God.

b. Demola : one of the major characters, he can be seen as an exploiter who took advantage of keziah under the pretence of trying to be helpful and a good person. He is also known to be an impressionable person as getting influenced by his friend kk. He was known to be one of the good academic students of Mayflower university

c. keziah: she is the major character . She is a fair young lady who was very interested in the works of her studies and a top grade student. She was a student of Mayflower university. She is known to be a survivor from her friend demola, and later got pregnant from the situation and eventually stopped going to school after her parents found out. She not getting love and affection from her father because she and her mom decided to keep the baby, attempted suicide and luckily her father finding her on time and getting saved .later gave birth to a girl child which was called mouritha and eventually continued her studies from university of Ibadan with the help of her dad.

3. In the movie the engineer (demola father) stated his wife was dead while going to make ammendment with keziah's parents while in the book both the engineer and his wife were alive when going to make ammendment to keziah parents. Also in the movie the pregnancy letter was on the table when keziah's father told her to open it while in the book it was just on the table.
