- 1. Attempt an incisive interrogation of Solomon.A. Edebor's Good Morning Sodom, underscoring at least five underlying thematic thrusts the drama engages.

This play has been an eye opener to the cause of some irresponsible acts that has encroached into campuses/universities, identifying such important factors like;

- a. Negative influence- This could be seen in the life of Demola. Demola was introduced to cultism and drugs by his friends. It was also his friends that prompted him to drug anne Keziah, destroying and ruining her life.
- b. Bad parenting- Engineer Diran and Mrs Diran who were the parents of Damola paid no attention to him at all and never gave him constant updates on how he was doing at school, we could see this in the act of Demola's parents towards his welfare and academics.
- c. Bad governace- Authorities in our present day in Nigeria are ignorant about the securities and implementation of rules and regulation.
- d. Cultism- Cultism is a major social problem in our nation's society. It has caused a lot of damages to lives and properties of Nigerian students especially in higher institutions. This can be seen among Demola and his friend group. It was the cause of his untimely death.

- e. Drug abuse- this is common among universities students, who use drugs in the pretence that they can't read well at night without taking drugs or use for the fun of it. This was seen in the life of Demola's friend K.K.

Her father was very angry with her when he found out she was pregnant but her mother on the other hand decided to help her scale through it

C. STELLA: She is keziah's roommate. Stella was a devoted Christian. She was once raped by her pastor's children and their friends when she was fourteen years of age. She was keziah's best roommate. She was uncomfortable with the way Keziah was close to Demola because of her past experience.
