- i. CULTISM: Nkwanga Nwoka {a.k.a KK}, Usman Yibo{ a.k.a Bentol}, Onoja Edmund, sebiotomo Phillips and Demola are members of cult group named Red flower confraternity. Cultism is a kind of evil behavior that goes on in our educational institution which should be curbed in university because it leads to a lot of consequence like killing and maiming of non members, indulging people into their group, bribery, prostitution, criminal activities like rape, destruction of properties etc.
- ii. NEGATIVE PEER PRESSURE: Nkwanga Nwoka {a.k.a Kk} was indulged Demola in taking drugs and joining cult in Mayflower University. Peer pressure plays a bigger role in student life and it can be tough to deal with. The desire to fit in is always there. Students should just know what their own personal values are and where to stand about certain things .

- iii. LACK OF ADEQUATE PARENTAL CARE AND MONITORING:
Engineer Diran and Mrs Diran ,parents to Demola were very busy . They don't have time for their child Demola . Parents should be watchful and they should supervise their children in multiple domain. This can reduce the child's risk for injury, pregnancy, drug and alcohol use.

- iv. PROSTITUTION: Stella, keziah roommate was involved in prostitution at a point in uthe play because she was a victim of rape. Student engage in prostitution in school for various reasons like poverty, lack of parental care, victims of rape, child labour and trafficking, peer pressure, laziness and thirst for quick wealth. When a student is engaged in prostitution he/she is likely to have STI and other venral disease; high risk of unwanted pregnancy, possibly never gaining proper education. Prostitution in university is a very common and it should be curbed in university.

- v. PARENTAL LOVE: Dr Aworawo Richards and Mrs Joke Richards parents where disappointed at first on hearing about their daughter keziah pregnancy but still showed her love by accepting, forgiving and supporting her . They sent her back to university regardless of the fact that she had a child. Parental love for their children could be one of the most genuine source of unconditional love. Parental love for there is an ever evolving and a complex emotion.

- i. KEZIAH: keziah Richard is one the Chief character. She is the daughter of Dr Aworawo Richard and Mrs Joke Richards. She is medium height, fair and in her late teens. She is a 200 level student of Mayflower University. Keziah started off as a disciplined and focused student but later fell victim of negative peer pressure which led her to fall in Demola trap . She became pregnant for Demola and her education was stopped for a while. She later gave birth to a baby girl called mourith and went back to school.

- ii. DEMOLA: Demola is the second chief character. He is the son of Engineer Diran and Mrs Diran. Demola is a 200 level English student of Mayflower University. DEMOLA was from a wealthy home and lacked parental care and monitoring. DEMOLA wanted to have something with keziah, he wanted to be in a relationship with her in which keziah was adamant about. DEMOLA invited her over which he used assignment as bait. He was pressurized by his friend KK to drug her and use charm on her so that he could have his way with her. He then raped keziah. Not long after he started taking drugs and eventually joined a cult in which he was indulged by his friends, he was then shot mistakenly by his friend KK during an operation.

- iii. NWANGA NWOKO {A.K.A KK}: Kk was a 400 level English student of Mayflower University. He was a cult member of the Red flower confraternity. Kk was a bad influence to his friends He persuaded Demola to engage in different despicable act like raping keziah and succeeded in luring him into cultism. He was later expelled from Mayflower University and was sent on Life imprisonment.
