[GOOD MORNING SODOM]

1. Attempt an incisive interrogation of Solomon A. Edebors Good Morning Sodom, underscoring at least five underlying thematic thrusts the drama engages. Thematic thrust involved in the drama includes rape, death, justice, suicidal attempt and forgiveness.

DEATH; In the mean time, demola and his friends spark and Kk were initiated into a cult called the red shadows. They were involved in an operation which led to the death of demola and the arrest of the other cult members by the police officers. demola was accidentally shot by kk instead of rival which kk had later confessed to demolas parents because he regretted his actions. He also confessed that he was the one who negatively influenced demola into doing all those heinous crimes.

JUSTICE; Spark, kk and other members of the cult were arrested during their operation, and are taken to the court where they are made to face trial. They present their case to the judge in which they were found guilty and charged and appropriate justice was passed onto them.

SUICIDAL ATTEMPT; In the play we see that Keziah's parents found out she was pregnant and were highly disappointed in her especially her father Dr Richard who refused to believe that she was actually raped. Few months by and Keziah's pregnancy bump is now visible, she tries everything in her power to make it up to her father but he was just so unforgiving. One day Mr Richards forgot his file on his way to an important meeting so he had to go back to get them. Upon getting them, he notices a little note on the table which has Keziah's handwriting apologizing to him and as he is reading the letter she would have been long gone because she drugged herself, thereby committing suicide.

RAPE; In the play written by Solomon edebor, the character keziah is a wonderful Nigerian student who worked diligently until she fell into the trap of a fellow student demola who was supposedly in love with her. Although Keziah refused to believe that Demola was actually in love with her but was pressurized by a friend into committing a heinous crime to Keziah, demola never gave up the chase for her, even her friends talked her into giving demola a chance but little did she know that the invite for a study session would bring her so much pain. In the play we see that when keziah was in Demola's house, he offered her a drink which she took and basically fell asleep but when she woke up she realized she had been raped by him. Keziah got to her hostel in tears where she explained all that had happened to her, her room mate stella tried to calm her down but keziah refused to be calm until stella reveals that she had also been raped by not one but four boys she tells her story to keziah who eventually calms down.

FORGIVENESS; She is rushed to the hospital where she is eventually revived and regains consciousness. Mr Richard then asks his daughter Keziah for forgiveness and apologizes to both her and his wife for not being a supportive father to keziah. Demolas parents also visited the hospital to apologize to keziah on demolas behalf and promises to do everything in their power to provide for the need of both kezia and her baby. Keziah forgives both her father and demolas parents and after few months the cry of a healthy baby girl is heard, keziahs' parents decide to enroll her back in school in another state for a fresh start and also promised to take care of her child in the meantime until she comes back.
