

ONIBIYO FOLAFOLUWA OLUDUNSIN

22/PHARM01/159

PHARMACY

Afe 122 assignment

INTERROGATION OF GOOD MORNING SOLDOM UNDERLYING THEMATIC TRUST THE DRAMA ENGAGES

DECEPTION; This was displayed in the sixth movement when Keziah was deceived to come to Demola's apartment for basic tutoring. She was then drugged and raped. This had broken Keziah's trust for Demola.

VICTIMIZATION: Also in the sixth movement, Keziah was a victim of rape so was her friend, Stella, who was raped at age fourteen by her pastor's children.

PEER INFLUENCES: This was displayed by Demola in movement eight when he was brought to join cult by the same individual who persuaded him to rape Keziah and do drugs.

CONSEQUENCES OF ACTIONS : we can say that in the seventeenth movement that those in cult group and those who led to the death of Demola faced the consequences of their actions in the court of law. As they were all sentenced to prison.

FORGIVENESS : In the fourteenth movement when Keziah's parents found out she was pregnant, her father was angry at her and almost disowned her till she attempted suicide and was rushed to the hospital. Her father then became remorseful for all he had said to her and they both forgave each other.

DETAILED CHARACTER ANALYSIS OF CHARACTERS IN GOOD MORNING SOLDOM

KEZIAH: She is a medium height, slightly rotund, fair young lady, an undergraduate in Mayflower university who is from a disciplined family. She was very hard working and always made her parents proud. She was the female main character in the drama.

Keziah was an individual whose aim in school was to get good grades. She was determined not to be distracted by anyone. She was admired by a boy named Demola who was in the same school with her. Demola tried his possible best to gain her trust but later deceived her after being influenced by a cultist to rape her. After that, her parents found out she was pregnant and her father was so angry he wanted to disown her. After feeling bad she attempted suicide but didn't succeed. She then gained redemption with her father and was sent to school in university of ibadan.

DEMOLA : He was a tall, dark, handsome boy who was also a student of mayflower university who came from a wealthy home. He used to admire a lady called Keziah and wanted to be friends with her, after failed attempts he decided to seek advice from his friend Nkanga Nwoko also known as k k who misled him into rapping her and joining a cult group because he was from a wealthy home. Although he died after being shot by his cult members. He was a victim of peer pressure.

STELLA: she is Keziah's friend, the one who was consoling her after the rape incident. She was a victim of rape at the age of fourteen by her pastor's sons and two of their friends. She then got angry at God and diverted into things of the world, through dreams God called stella back to him and stopped her old ways.

Question 3: what are the points of divergence between the published and the film version of good morning, Sodom?

The film has a different narrative structure or pacing compared to the book, with some scenes being cut or rearranged.

The film have added or omitted certain characters, or changed the personalities of existing characters.

The film added or omitted certain subplots or themes that were present in the book.