Thematic thrusts

1. Death: Demola died in the book. He died shortly after being initiated into a cult group. Keziah was informed about the news by her friend Stella and she was shocked to the extent of collapsing. Demola's death affected his parents so much because he was the only child they had so it was such a big blow to them and the fact that he was shot by his friend is more devastating. And he left Keziah with an unborn child.
2. Cultism: Kk and Bentol Demola's supposed friends were cult members and they initiated him into cultism too and that was what led to his death. So death is one of many consequences of cultism and they all faced expulsion and criminal charges so if they had not joined cult it wouldn't have happened as Kk was in his final year and he has to drop out of school and face life imprisonment because of his actions.
3. Rape: Keziah was the victim of rape in this case and it was Demola who raped her after being persuaded by his friends Kk and Bentol he ruined her life and took away her dignity leaving her to suffer with her unborn child and still suffer rejection from her own father but she pulled through. He used assignment as a bait to lure her to his apartment and raped her there and then.
4. Suicide: Keziah is also the victim here she faced rejection from her father she overheard him threatening to disown her so she thought if committing suicide she left a note for her parents in the sitting room her father was early enough to see her in that state and rushed her to the hospital and she survived so did her baby.
5. Hate: Demola is the victim of hate here Keziah hated him after what he did to her. After raping her she hated him "I hate u Demola" she said she was pained so much that she cursed the day they met she was so angry because he raped her he ruined her life and took away her dignity.

Character analysis

1. Demola: A 200 level student of Mayflower University he comes from a wealthy family. *Points of divergence between the written and the film version of Good morning Sodom

1.in movement one it was written that 'light dawn, revealing mayflower university hostel.

Female students are seen at different spots some washing clothes others laughing and chattering away, but in the movie there was no such scene.

2. still in movement one they portrayed keziah to be a medium height, slightly rotund, fair young lady with newly plaited hair. But in the movie her hair was not newly plaited. She was wearing a wig.

3.in movement six Emmanuella came to preach to Stella according to the book but in the movie she met her outside spreading her clothes

4. In the movie they showed a scene where keziah was crying and her mother was consoling her but that scene was not in the book

5.in the book demola's mother was alive but in the movie she was not.

6. In the book keziah's daughter name was mouritha but in the movie her name was heritage.
