THEMES OF THE PLAY

Danger of cultism: The play clearly portrays the danger of cultism primarily in the life of youths. Demola is led to an untimely death. Also, K.K is rusticated from the university and sentenced to a life in prison.

Inadequate parental guidance: Demola parents are guilty of inadequate parental guidance in his life, thereby exposing him to seek advice from external sources. The play points out the consequence of inadequate guidance. Once parents fail to teach their children the right thing someone will teach them the wrong thing.

Rape and the emotional trauma it brings on the raped

Hope: The message of hope is preached by Stella as she encourages Keziah to press on. This message is later emphasized in the play as Keziah is given a second opportunity to pursue her education after the birth of her child.

Influence of negative peer pressure: Demola had a bright future ahead of him but its bright light was made dim by his friendship with K.K. In addition, Keziah has a few blames to throw around as she heeds to the advice of her course mates and gave Demola a chance, a chance she lived to regret.
